

I do not beleive that the FCC should limit what stations that XM radio broadcast. I am a paying customer and like what I have on my XM radio. If I am out of town and need the traffic or weather, XM radio offers it to me. i do not have to search the radio for a local station to find it. If the FCC wants Competition and not a monopoly, then they should reject NAB petition 04-160.